

This image shows a highly detailed, rectangular rug with a complex, symmetrical design. The central medallion is dark brown with a large, stylized floral motif. The background is light blue with a repeating pattern of smaller floral and geometric elements. The rug is bordered by a wide, ornate band featuring repeating diamond and floral motifs in gold, blue, and white. The overall style is characteristic of traditional Persian or Turkish rug weaving.

A detailed view of a corner of a Persian rug. The rug features a complex floral and geometric pattern in shades of gold, blue, and cream. The corner is finished with a fringed edge. The rug is laid on a dark wooden floor.

SURYA